

THANK YOU

To all the shelter professionals working to help America's pets

Shelter professionals work hard with small budgets and big challenges. Most people don't realize that national groups like the Humane Society of the United States aren't affiliated with local pet shelters and almost none of their money goes to help these local groups. You could show your appreciation to your local pet shelter today with a donation of your time or money.

Thank You

Find your local shelter at:

HumaneForPets.com

